In re Application of	:
Pat Yananton	:	LETTER REGARDING PATENT
Application No. 10/033,862	:	TERM ADJUSTMENT
Filed: December 20, 2001	:
Attorney Docket No. 1718	:

This is a decision on the "Request for Reconsideration of the Patent Term Adjustment Determination," filed July 1, 2009, which is properly treated as a petition under 37 CFR 1.705(b). Applicants request that the initial Determination of Patent Term Adjustment under 35 U.S.C. 154(b) be corrected from forty (40) days to at least six hundred and fifty-eight (658) days.

The application for patent term adjustment is GRANTED TO THE EXTENT INDICATED HEREIN.

The Office has updated the PALM and PAIR screens to reflect that the patent term adjustment determination at the time of the mailing of the notice of allowance is two hundred and nine (209) days (775 days of Office delay - 566 days of applicant delay). A copy of the updated PAIR screen, showing the corrected determination, is enclosed.

On June 25, 2009, the Office mailed the Determination of Patent Term Adjustment under 35 U.S.C. 154(b) in the above-identified application. The Notice stated that the patent term adjustment to date is 40 days. Applicants timely filed the instant application for patent term adjustment.¹ Specifically, applicants state:

In reviewing the patent term adjustment history, the applicant was charged with the following delays

¹ PALM finance records indicate the issue fee was paid on July 1, 2009.

- 181 days from the date of response to the non-final rejection of 07/16/2004. This response was filed 10/15/2004. In response to an examiner interview of 03/28/2005, a supplemental response was filed 16 days later. Applicant fails to see how 181 days of delay can be attributed to his actions as a result of this timeline.
- 146 days of added delay were added from 01/17/2006 after the response to nonfinal action was forwarded to the examiner. Applicant fails to see how 146 days of delay can be attributed to his action as a result of this timeline.
- 291 days were additionally added during a period from 01/31/2007 through 08/16/2007 in which a notice of allowance was issued and subsequently rescinded. Applicant fails to see how he could have done anything to affect this delay whatsoever.

Applicants' contention is well taken relative to the reduction of the patent term adjustment of 181 days. The record supports a conclusion that the supplemental reply filed April 14, 2005, was expressly requested by the examiner within the meaning of 37 CFR 1.704(c)(8)². Accordingly, the reduction of 181 days is not warranted and is being removed.

² Pursuant to 37 CFR 1.704(c)(8),

(c) Circumstances that constitute a failure of the applicant to engage in reasonable efforts to conclude processing or examination of an application also include the following circumstances, which will result in the following reduction of the period of adjustment set forth in § 1.703 to the extent that the periods are not overlapping:

(8) Submission of a supplemental reply or other paper, other than a supplemental reply or other paper expressly requested by the examiner, after a reply has been filed, in which case the period of adjustment set forth in § 1.703 shall be reduced by the number of days, if any, beginning on the day after the date the initial reply was filed and ending on the date the supplemental reply or other such paper was filed.

Applicants' argument relative to the reductions of 146 days and 291 days has been considered and is not persuasive. A review of the application file record reveals that on July 15, 2005, a non-final Office action was mailed to which applicants filed a response on January 17, 2006. On June 8, 2006, and June 12, 2006, applicants filed supplemental responses to the non-final Office action. There is no evidence that the examiner requested that the supplemental amendments be filed. Pursuant to 37 CFR 1.704(c)(8), it is appropriate to enter a reduction to the patent term adjustment of 146 days beginning from the day after the date the initial reply was filed, January 18, 2006, and ending on the date the second supplemental reply was filed June 12, 2006³. Accordingly, the period of reduction to the patent term adjustment of 146 days for applicant delay pursuant to 37 CFR 1.704(c)(8) will not be removed.

Likewise, a review of the application file record reveals that on September 7, 2006, a non-final Office action was mailed to which applicants filed a response on January 11, 2007. On August 16, 2007, and on October 29, 2007, applicants filed supplemental responses to the non-final Office action. There is no evidence that the examiner requested that the supplemental amendments be filed. Pursuant to 37 CFR 1.704(c)(8), it is appropriate to enter a reduction to the patent term adjustment of 291 days beginning from the day after the date the initial reply was filed, September 8, 2006, and ending on the date the second supplemental reply was filed October 29, 2007⁴. Accordingly, the period of reduction to the patent term adjustment of 291 days for applicant delay pursuant to 37 CFR 1.704(c)(8) will not be removed.

³ It is noted that filing of the supplemental amendment filed June 8, 2006, is also subject to a reduction under 37 CFR 1.704(c)(8), from the period beginning January 18, 2006, through June 8, 2006. However, since the period overlaps with the period of reduction for the supplemental amendment filed June 12, 2006, which is January 18, 2006, through June 12, 2006, only the greater period of reduction 146 days was entered.

⁴ It is noted that filing of the supplemental amendment filed August 16, 2007, is also subject to a reduction under 37 CFR 1.704(c)(8), from the period beginning January 12, 2007, through August 16, 2007. However, since the period overlaps with the period of reduction for the supplemental amendment filed October 29, 2007, which is January 12, 2007, through August 16, 2007, only the greater period of reduction 291 days was entered.

Further review of the application file record revealed that the adjustment to the patent term of 21 days pursuant to 37 CFR 1.702(a)(2)⁵ is not warranted. A non-final Office action was mailed on December 24, 2008, to which applicant responded by filing a Notice of Appeal and appeal brief on February 4, 2009. By a communication mailed March 16, 2009, applicants were informed that the appeal brief filed February 4, 2009, was not compliant with 37 CFR 41.37. Accordingly, the appeal brief filed February 4, 2009, was not properly taken under 35 U.S.C. 134, and, therefore, would not have started the Office's period for response pursuant to 37 CFR 1.702(a)(2). Rather, the Office's period for response pursuant 37 CFR 1.702(a)(2) is calculated from the appeal brief filed on March 18, 2009. The Office responded, within four months pursuant to 37 CFR 1.702(a)(2), to the appeal taken under 35 U.S.C. 134 filed March 18, 2009, by mailing a Notice of Allowance on June 25, 2009. Accordingly, the period of adjustment to the patent term of 21 days is unwarranted and is being removed.

In view thereof, the correct patent term adjustment at the time of the mailing of the Notice of Allowance is two hundred and nine (209) days (775 days of Office delay - 566 days of applicant delay).

Applicants are reminded that any delays by the Office pursuant to 37 CFR §§ 1.702(a)(4) and 1.702(b) and any applicant delays under 37 CFR § 1.704(c)(10) will be calculated at the time of the issuance of the patent and applicants will be notified in the Issue Notification letter that is mailed to applicants approximately three weeks prior to issuance.

Deposit account 07-2380 will be charged $200.00 for the fee required under 37 CFR 1.18(e). No additional fees are due.

⁵ Pursuant to 37 CFR 1.702(a)(2),

(a) Subject to the provisions of 35 U.S.C. 154(b) and this subpart, term of an original patent shall be adjusted if the issuance of the patent was delayed due to the failure of the Office to:

(2) Respond to a reply under 35 U.S.C. 132 or to an appeal taken under 35 U.S.C. 134 not later than four months after the date on which the reply was filed or the appeal was taken.

The Office of Data Management has been advised of this decision. This matter is being referred to the Office of Data Management for issuance of the patent.

Telephone inquiries regarding this matter should be directed to Kenya A. McLaughlin, Petitions Attorney, at (571) 272-3222.
